SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

Dismantling white supremacy and achieving racial equality means that we must forge friendships across racial lines. It is helpful to remember that race is a social construct meant to divide us by perceived skin color: we can push back against this by not letting ourselves be divided along racial lines. You can do this by identifying someone of a different racial identity and by building a bridge with them. Start with a friendly "hello" or strike up a conversation, then listen. Good listeners make good friends!

MAKE-UP PICTURE DAY

Don't forget! Tuesday, December 1st is Make-Up Picture Day both for on-site and distance learners. We can't wait to see all those shining smiles:

On-Site Grades and Maple Rose Kinders @
9:30AM to 11:15AM

Distance Learners and Lily Rose Kinders @
11:15AM to 12:30PM

ANNUAL GIVING & GIVING TUESDAY

This year, #GivingTuesday takes place on December 1st which also marks the beginning of Blue Oak's Annual Giving Campaign.

As you may know, the materials and experience of a quality Waldorf education can come at a cost. It is because of the vibrant and generous support of our community that Blue Oak is able to offer this specialized, arts-based curriculum. Your annual, tax-deductible gift of $200 per student can be made as a one-time donation or as smaller monthly gifts by visiting our website and clicking on the "Donations" tab.

Why not celebrate this worldwide movement of generosity by showing support for your students' education? Thank you for supporting our wonderful school!
