The California Charter School Governance Academy is a free, in-person, intensive workshop designed to help school leaders and governing board members increase their knowledge of their legal obligations as stewards of public schools.

Offered in cooperation with the charter school law professionals at Young, Minney & Corr LLP, it will help schools develop legally compliant governing board policies and procedures and establish clear roles and responsibilities. It will help schools avoid potential problems by identifying key areas of expertise for high functioning boards.

Topics to be covered include:

- Board fiscal oversight roles and responsibilities
- The Brown Act
- Political Reform Act
- Conflict of Interest Basics
- Statement of Economic Interest Basics (Form 700)
- 501 (c) 3 corporations
- Board Committees' limitations and duties
